Subject:

June 6, 1967

Long Distance Call From
Mr. Emery Richard Whetstone,
7 E. Harrison, Ainsworth, Iowa.

Sir:

At 1:20 A.M., Mr. Whetstone called this office and talked with Officer O. L. Rodgers regarding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Mr. Whetstone spoke as if he were intoxicated, and seemed to be well educated.

He stated he saw the person that fired the shots that killed Mr. Kennedy, and that it was not Mr. Oswald. Mr. Whetstone stated it was Franklin Folley, who is the drummer in Frank Sinatra's band, currently playing in Las Vegas. He stated that Mr. Folley was standing directly in front of him (in park across street from the Texas School Book Depository). Mr. Whetstone states he has three empty rifle cartridges from the rifle Mr. Folley used. Mr. Whetstone gave Officer Rodgers the phone number 646-6507, Welman, Iowa. This call was traced by telephone company and this is the correct number he was calling from.
